

Beat the Q's.

Top tips for getting through the departure lounge

We've all done it. We arrive at the airport at some ungodly hour, thinking, "We'll just breeze through here" But no! It's heaving. Why are all these people here? Why are they moving so slowly? Why can't I see my flight on the board?

Time

You want to do it with studied calm. With an air of relaxed insouciance. Now read on...

All the tactics ever invented are no substitute for time. Give yourself plenty. Calculate on a worse case basis then add a bit. You can always mooch about, read a paper or browse duty-free. But you can't extend the time when you're elbowing through crowds and galloping to the gate.

Fast Track

You don't have to have an upgraded ticket. You don't have to be friends with the people in security. You just have to contact Holiday Extras and we'll take care of your high-speed pass through security and onto the gate.

Book a lounge

There ARE millions of people there. They DO all move too slowly. They leave their bags where they know you'll trip over them. They all have at least a dozen noisy, ill-behaved children. Give them all the slip.

For laughably low costs, Holiday Extras will book you into an airport lounge, where you can relax in peace with book, newspaper, drink or snack. Try it on your next trip. When you've done it once, we promise you'll want to do it every time.

Useful links

Holiday Extras www.holidayextras.co.uk
www.holidayextras.co.uk/airport-lounges.html
- Book an airport lounge
www.holidayextras.co.uk/travel-blog/starting-your-holiday/uk-airport-lounges.html
- Secrets of airport lounges www.holidayextras.co.uk/travel-blog/before-you-go/airport-tips.html - Airport Tips www.holidayextras.co.uk/travel-blog/before-you-go/fun-things-to-do-at-the-airport.html
- Fun things to do at the airport